Resource Person Profile:

Major Pradeep Patil is an officer in the Indian Armed Forces. He completed Bachelors in Science from National College Jayanagar in 2009 after which he did his MBA from MS Ramiah Institute of Technology in 2012. Major Pradeep was an NCC cadet during his graduation studies, which we believe would have drawn him towards joining the armed forces. He joins Officer's Training Academy Chennai in 2012 and passes out in 2013 to be commissioned in Army Air Defense. He is presently serving at the rank of Major in Assam Rifles regiment of Indian Army.

Captain Bhargav GS an officer in the Indian Armed Forces. He was born and brought up entirely in Bangalore. Did his schooling from St Paul's English School JP Nagar, PU from National College Jayanagar, Engineering from VIT, Koramangala. He was an NCC cadet of 2009-2012 batch. He worked at HP for two years and then cleared SSB in Nov 2016. He joined Officer's Training Academy Chennai in 2017 and was commissioned into 5th Battalion of 4th Gorkha Rifles regiment in the Indian Army.

Special invitee Mr. Altaf Pasha, alumni of our college and an ex NCC cadet of 2007 to 2010 batch. He is currently pursuing his Ph.D. in physics from Jain University and is a guest lecturer at the National College Jayanagar.

EPISODE 1: ETHIC LOCKS

DATE: 27 NOV, 2021.

The ethics and self-governance cell of SSMRV college started an event called “Nexus”, The series connecting Ethics. It is an open mic event that mainly focuses on personal and professional Ethics.

The event took place in auditorium with approximately 20 people present, under the guidance of the club convener DR SHALINI N and started its first episode “Ethic locks” on 27th of November. And the presenters of the event are USHASWINI DURUSEDU, TEJASWINI DURUSEDU, SHASHANK S. The meaning behind the title ‘Ethics locks’ is that the audience present in the event are brought into “the door of ethics and locked to the ethics of life” emphasizing that the audience are locked in the world of personal Ethics.

The host of the event was Shreyas from final year B.com. After a warm welcome for the club convenor and the audience present at the event, the Event moved forward. The presenters focused on three main topics that are as follows:

1. Honesty
2. Respect
3. Loyalty

Presenter Tejaswini chose to talk on ‘Honesty’. The presenter first explains, the significance of ethics and how little impact they have on the society we live in. A video regarding ‘six-Ethics of life’ was played after. Followed by a video of ‘Honesty’. A brief explanation of the term Ethics was done by taking a real- life example ‘court’ and shared an incident that occurred in the life of Mahatma Gandhi Ji and gave a conclusion of the term. The club convenor threw a question at the audience on how the people will implement the term ‘Honesty’ in their life?

Second Presenter Shashank chose the term ‘Respect’. The speaker focused on how respect is shown in different ways within the country and around the globe, and how the society judge a person purely by their appearance and their behaviour. He voiced a famous idiom “don’t judge a book by its cover”. Makes a strong point on how one loses their self-respect, and also talks about how one can cultivate their self-respect. The speaker ends his topic by sating a quote “treat others the way you wish to be treated”. A brief video which concentrates on the term ‘Respect’ was played.

The third Speaker/presenter Ushaswini took over and she chose the term 'loyalty'. A short video on loyalty was played. And explains the occurrence of the video. The term was defined and comprehended. The speaker took APJ Abdul Kalam Ji as example. How the Great man was loyal to his varied professions, and asked the gathering where they find loyalty? And states that the loyalty starts from the people and chose student as the example. Benefits and demonstration of loyalty were focused. The presenter concludes the presentation by a quote,

“Respect is earned, Honesty is appreciated, Trust is gained and Loyalty is returned”

Session 2: Patriotism and Women Empowerment

Date: 04-12-2021

Ethics and Self Governance Cell of SSMRV College under the guidance of Cell Convener Dr Shalini N organised second session of Nexus – A series of Connecting Ethics on 4th December,2021. It was an insightful session on Patriotism and Women Empowerment to know importance of being patriot and imbue moral values in every walk of life. 30 members of Ethics and Self Governance Cell participated in the session.

In the NEXUS 2 session the following topics were explained by the presenters:

4. What is Ethics?
5. Patriotism
6. Patriotism in our daily life
7. Role of culture and moral values in Patriotism
8. Women Empowerment

The session began with warm welcome by the host Akash, Vice President of ESGC continued with presentation by Ajay S, Joint Secretary and Manosri Sara, Board Member of ESGC. The presenters first explained about what is ethics and the phrase ethical behaviour from the words of famous personalities Albert Einstein and Dalai Lama and a video was presented which elaborates ethics in depth. While explaining about Patriotism and they shared us the reasons why we stand when national anthem is played whether it may be in educational institutions, movie theatres etc. and also gave a brief explanation about the NATIONAL HONOR ACT,1971. They also threw light onto the topic how culture and moral values play a role in patriotism by comparing it to school and colleges. Presenters advised students to educate themselves about the culture they leave in no matter where they are from, what language they speak and their overall ethnical background. They described the importance of culture by illustrating the event organised by RSS affiliate Bhartiya Shiksha Mandal and Indira Gandhi National open university where our former president shared his views on Bhartiya approach. They also gave an example on on-going pandemic where despite chaos, we the citizens stick together as one nation. They concluded about patriotism with a video in which we can learn how patriotism is important in depth and the real social meaning of patriotism.

It was an amazing session and all the participants reaped its benefits.

NEXUS 3 – A Series of Connecting Ethics.
Self-Love, Self-Respect and Self-Confidence

Date: 19 / 01 / 2022

Ethics and Self Governance Cell of SSMRV college conducted a very practical and insightful online session “NEXUS 3” on the topic “Self-Love, Self-Respect and Self-Confidence on 19th January of 2022. The presenters for this event were Harshitha N and Shruthi S from Second year B. Com ‘A’ Section of SSMRV College. This session was organised under the guidance of Ethics and Self Governance Cell Convener Dr Shalini. N. 54 members of Ethics and Self Governance Cell were present.

The session started with welcome and brief introduction on the topic and presenters by host of the session Manosri Sara from First year BCA ‘A’ Section. Presenter Shruthi S enlightened the participants to mould the mind set and perspective to prioritize themselves and to build a hope of trust on themselves. She explained the role of Self-love ‘how you love yourself is how you teach others to treat you’.

Presenter Harshitha N inspired us to see the opportunity in failures and emphasised on the setbacks with self-confidence. She illustrated dealing with obstacles and transformation of challenge into opportunities by sharing a real-time experience (encountered by her) from her on-going online business. She also spoke about a few current pressurised scenarios and taught a few techniques to tackle them all by enhancing self-confidence and also by celebrating each and every small achievement.

It was a two-way session where participants could share their insights on this regard. She highlighted the importance of Self-Respect which is in need of the hour in our society to come out of the loop of Self-Doubt, Overthinking, fear of failure and rejection. The speaker disclosed the hurdles faced by the people due to lack of Self-Respect and also recommended participants to boost their confidence, love and respect by adopting simple changes in life.

By the end of the session, all the participants were pumped-up to spread the learning to their fellow-mates.
