1st Feb 2023 - Day 1 – Inaugural Ceremony and Session on Institutional Approach Towards NAAC Accreditation

Chief Guest –

Dr Leena Gahane
Deputy Advisor, NAAC

Resource Person –

Dr Madhukar B S,
Former Adviser, NAAC,
External Member, IQAC, SSMRV College

The event began with a Welcome Address by Dr Nagaraj M S, Coordinator – IQAC and Head – Dept of Commerce. He welcomed The Chief Guests, The Resource Person, The Organising Team and all the participants from the academic fraternity (both inhouse and outside) for this mega event and thanking them for registering themselves to attend this webinar amidst their academic priorities. He also emphasised on the importance of NAAC and the preparedness that each of us needs to have to take our respective HEI's to greater heights.

Dr S Anil Kumar, Principal, SSMRV College in his opening remarks expressed his gratitude to NAAC for associating with SSMRV College for this webinar. He mentioned about how NAAC is the need of the hour and how institutions needs to be aware of the changes and challenges towards NAAC Accreditation.

Dr Geetha R, Director, SSMRV College in her address emphasised on the concept of Quality sustenance for which NAAC strives on. She mentioned about the various courses like MOOC, Corporate Open Online courses and SPOCs which poses new challenges to conventional education especially in the light of NEP 2020. She also mentioned about how we need to gear up to face the new challenges in the new educational eco system.

Dr Leena Gahane set the tone for the seminar and gave an overview of the NAAC process and the whole objective of why a NAAC accreditation is required in the first place. The importance of SSR was stressed on. She basically stressed on the fact as to how the vision and mission of each educational institution needs to align with that of NAAC, the common factor being quality education. She appreciated the efforts of SSMRV College in embarking on such a wonderful journey.

The session by Dr Madhukar, Former Adviser, NAAC and External Member, IQAC, SSMRV College on the topic – Institutional Approach Towards NAAC Accreditation emphasised on how a College Management needs to prioritise on the accreditation process. With the exception of NAAC which is a mandatory accreditation, the College would need to exercise discretion on what type of accreditation they would need to go for and the impact of the same in the long run, Accreditation should always be a reflective process and not an overloading process. He gave an overview about both the types of metrics – Qualitative and Quantitative and discussed the same criteria wise. He set the tone for the next 6 days where in a thread bare analysis of each criteria would be done. The Q&A session had questions on how to create new clubs and associations. What documents would be require for certain criteria among others. The session met with extremely positive feedback from all participants.

3rd Feb 2023 - Day 3- Session on Criteria 2 – Teaching, Learning & Evaluation

Resource Person –

Dr T Siddaiah
Former Registrar
S V University
Thirupathi
Andhra Pradesh

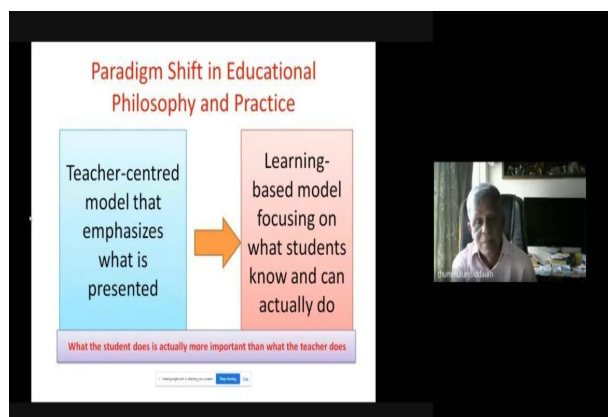

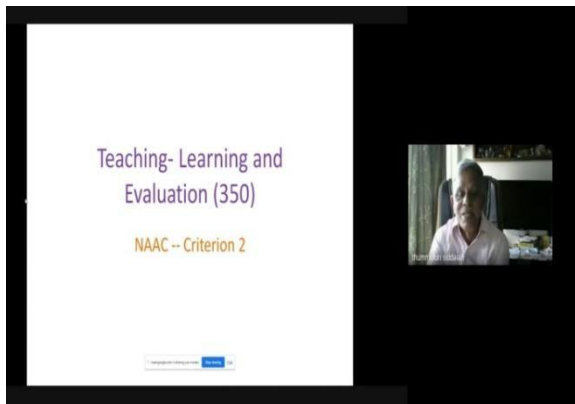

The webinar on “NAAC Criterion 2- Teaching-Learning and Evaluation” was addressed by Dr. T.Siddaiah, Former Registrar, Sri Venkateshwara University, Tirupathi, Andhra Pradesh through Google Meet Platform on 3rd February 2023.

Dr.Siddaiah elaborated the efficiency of the techniques used to continuously evaluate the performance of teachers and students which was the major concern of this criterion. This criterion deals with the efforts of an institution to serve students of different backgrounds and abilities, through effective teaching-learning experiences.

Dr. T Siddaiah emphasized that the assessment by NAAC takes a holistic view of all the inputs, processes and outcomes of an institution and thus the HEIs are expected to demonstrate how they achieve the objectives of the core values through the data and information detailed in the self-study reports (SSR). He stressed that the Assessment and Accreditation outcome includes a qualitative and quantitative component. The speakers’ presentations were very informative. The session was followed by an interactive question and answer session with the Participants.

We received good response from the delegates and the feedback of the sessions reflects satisfaction by the participants.
