Biography

By profession, I am a Global Process Engineer at HP Inc., with over 18 years of corporate work experience, and by passion, I'm a Social Influencer, Public Speaker, Former Toastmaster, Mastermind, Mountaineer, and Transformational Coach. In my free time, I love to interact with those individuals who have transformed their own lives. I visit schools and colleges to deliver guest lectures about personality development and career related topics to empower, engage, and energize the students.

I'm passionate about

In the journey of discovering myself, I started running long distances. I found it intensifying and extreme. Honestly, it had a profound impact on me. Previously I used to publish "Words of Wisdom" thrice a week to practice positivity on leading social platforms like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and WeChat. At regular intervals, I meet my group of friends whom I call Masterminds. We discuss topics like Coaching Techniques, Volunteer contributions, Joy of giving, and Transforming lives. Also, I read Articles and eBooks including motivational or inspirational quotes about life on Social Media platforms. Apart from all these activities I also visit educational institutions to deliver special guest lectures based on the topics.
